

Did you know the Prince of Wales now serves roast dinners on the first Sunday of each month? I like to think that what we offer is not only exceptional in price but more importantly in quality. If you like a traditional pub that serves real quality food then please do make a point of trying us out...I think you may be very surprised. Rob.

Please note, all beers are subject to availability, and not all will be at the bar at the same time - so you'll just have to come every day!!
